IDEAS & LIFE

Joe Hudson @FU_joehudson · Nov 12 IDEAS & LIFE

If you're tired all the time, notice how your inner talk sounds…

Criticizing ourselves all the time is one of the most exhausting things we do all day, without realizing it.

Matthew Baszucki @matthewbaszucki · Nov 12 IDEAS & LIFE

8 most critical metabolic therapies for mental illness. Ordered by overall impact (personal list, based on my experience). These put my bipolar disorder into remission.

1. Ketogenic diet, preferably carnivore
2. Cut out drugs & alcohol
3. Physical exercise (hard cardio + weights)
4. Sunlight exposure first thing in the morning, throughout the day, in evening
5. Keep stress low
6. Sleep
7. Prayer, meditation, spiritual life
8. Time with others

Stephen Pimentel @StephenPiment · Nov 13 IDEAS & LIFE

In The Birth of Tragedy, Nietzsche writes that existence and the world are justified aesthetically.

His aim is thus parallel to Milton's in Paradise Lost, only the justification does not reference God.

Mac Vogt @MacVogt · Nov 12 IDEAS & LIFE

A friend gave me a key, a copy of his.

His door's far different than mine.

Still, it was generous.

SCIENCE & HEALTH

Bryan Johnson @bryan_johnson · Nov 12 SCIENCE & HEALTH

Slowing brain aging is one of the hardest things to solve.

The first step is to understand the specific proteins and metabolites driving accelerated brain aging.

MRI brain-age clocks plus genomics, proteomics, and metabolomics identifies molecular correlates.

LIGHTER

Grant Slatton @GrantSlatton · Nov 12 LIGHTER

saved an ethiopian child's life today

no this post isn't about some EA charity thing

kid snuck away from his parents at the park and tried to run into traffic, but i stopped him
